1. INTRODUCTRION

1.1 INTRODUCTION TO THE SYSTEM

This project concern the implementation of a software system, whose purpose is to allow the user to insert organize and manipulate surveys and questionnaires data so as to extract the necessary results. This system gives the user the opportunity to extract results regarding the Information Technology Survey using the ready made questionnaires and also gives him/her the chance to create and use his/her surveys and questionnaires. The results are coming out of the system in graphs and charts after the user has made online enquiry.

The system does the following operations:

- Surveys' Maintenance
- General Questionnaires' Maintenance
- Company and Employee Questionnaire Maintenance
- Questionnaires' Questions Creation
- Questionnaires' Possible Answers
- Actual Questionnaires' Answers
- Generates Queries
- Prints Queries' Results
