

TRAFFIC ANALYSIS

HIGHER
TECHNICAL INSTITUTE

PROJECT NO.

2515

SUBMITTED BY

Yianni Georgios

PROJECT SUPERVISOR

Mr Kathijotes Nicos

OBJECTIVES

- To describe the operation of a major intersection taking into consideration all modes of transportation.
- To investigate a specific intersection and to state all possible problems.
- To suggest practical methods for the solution of problems at the intersection under investigation.

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|--------|
| OBJECTIVES | Pg 1 |
| CHAPTER I | |
| INTRODUCTION | Pg 2-3 |
| CHAPTER II | |
| TRAFFIC STUDIES | |
| Manually, automatic method | Pg 4 |
| Radar, magnetic, electric contract device | Pg 5 |
| Home, Roadside interview method | Pg 6 |
| Postcard survey method | |
| Registration number method | Pg 7 |
| CHAPTER III | |
| THE INTERSECTION | |
| Intersection control | Pg 8 |
| Types of intersection control | |
| Turn controls at intersection | Pg 9 |
| Intersection parking controls | Pg 10 |

CHAPTER IV

ACCIDENT ANALYSIS

Causes of traffic accidents

| | |
|-----------------------------|----------|
| Human factors | Pg 11 |
| Accident analysis | Pg 12 |
| Collission diagram | Pg 13 |
| Key to causes numbers | Pg 14-19 |

CHAPTER V

| | |
|---|----------|
| CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS / SOLUTIONS | Pg 20-22 |
|---|----------|

| | |
|-----------------|-------|
| REFERENCE | Pg 23 |
|-----------------|-------|